Dear Capt. Sklavounos Gklezacos, good day.

First of all, thank you for the opportunity and for once again trusting Sultrade's services.

Please find attached the PDA for the requested services. Kindly note that the vessel has not yet been announced at any Rio Grande terminal; we will keep you duly posted.

Regarding the PSC inspection, these are normally carried out on a random basis. Should the authorities decide to attend on board M/V Blessed Luck, we will be present to assist.

Remain at your disposal.

Best regards,

Pedro Martins

Assunto: MV BLESSED LUCK// RIO GRANDE o/a 26th February

Good day,

Our MV Blessed Luck is scheduled to call Rio Grande, Brazil, o/a 26th February for loading operations. During this call, we wish to appoint you as our protective agents and kindly request your assistance with all husbandry matters.

In addition, we would appreciate your attendance and support during the CHs inspection, as well as your assistance in providing all relevant available information and guidance regarding the local PSC approach.

Kindly let us have your PDA for our review and consideration at your convenience.

We will revert with charterers' agent details once available.

Looking forward to your reply.

Best Regards,

Capt. Sklavounos Gklezakos
