TO NAVILANDS BULKER MANAGEMENT LTD
FM SULTRADE SHIPPING AGENCY

Dear Ms. Silia Angeli,

Good day.

Thank you for your message below. Content duly noted.

We confirm that the necessary attendance will be arranged for the superintendent in both ports (Paranaguá for MV "Builder" and Barcarena for MV "Morning Cloud"). The respective port expenses will be billed separately.

Please note that MV "Builder" is currently shown on Marine Traffic with ETA Paranaguá on 19/03. However, the vessel has not yet been announced in the Paranaguá Port System. Supposedly she is coming to load agriproducts (please kindly advise) and, if so, depending on the cargo to be loaded, cargo readiness, and the berth assigned, her waiting time may reach around 10 days, wp agw.

On the other hand, as informed below, MV "Morning Cloud" is presently giving ETA Barcarena on 19/03.

That said, both vessels are currently expected to arrive on the same day. Fyg, the distance from Paranagua (South of Brazil) and Barcarena (North of Brazil) is about 2.700 KM (Straight-line air distance).

In this regard, could you please check and inform the following:

1. The name of the charterers' agent for MV "Builder".
2. The name of the charterers' agents for MV "Morning Cloud" at Barcarena.
3. The current prospects for MV "Morning Cloud" at Barcarena.

This information will allow us to revert with an appropriate plan for the superintendent's attendance in both ports in a timely manner.
